DOG BOARDING INSTRUCTIONS

I WELCOME YOUR CANINE FAMILY MEMBER INTO MY HOME FOR A VISIT! TO MAKE HIS/HER (AND MY) EXPERIENCE A TRULY HAPPY ONE, PLEASE PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING:

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOUR DOG HAS HAD A RECENT BATH, SHORT TONAILS THAT HAVE BEEN FILED BLUNT SO THAT THERE ARE NOT SHARP CUT EDGES, AND CURRENT FLEA PROTECTION.

CURRENT FULL IMMUNIZATIONS, INCLUDING 6 MO. BORDETELLA, ANNUAL FECAL EXAM AND CURRENT LICENSING ARE NECESSARY. Strongly recommend a fecal exam close to boarding if dog regularly uses a dog park.

PLEASE NOTIFY YOUR VET THAT I WILL BE CARING FOR YOUR DOG.

PLEASE BRING WITH YOUR PET:

Authorization to place urgent/emergency Veterinary care on your Credit Card or account

Proof and recent history of immunizations

Any special medical needs (allergies for instance) and appropriate medical history

Medications and instructions, if any

Dog license tag

Collar, leash, halter

Dog Food (also extra in case you're delayed) and instructions (amount, times/day, Brand and variety of food)

Food dish (some dogs like their own dish better than mine)

Treats

Blanket, bed, kennel crate if that is part of your dog's routine

Toys: Warning, toys are shared so don't bring a precious toy that could be in danger of shredding by another dog! Bedtime toys can be removed from use during the day and given only at night if desired.

Towel(s) Please note: You will incur a $10 towel charge (per towel) if you do not provide your own towel(s).

Any other item that would help your pet to feel "at home"

If possible, please mark your dog's items (leash, food dish, food container, meds, towel, etc.) with your dog's name.

Please be reminded that any transport of pet off site for appointments, whether pre-planned or emergency, will incur additional charges.
